Johnny Dundee of New York out-pointed Phil Bloom of Procklyn in the ten round feature of the Claremont A. C. boxing entertainment last night. was a gathering of the trotting Square Garden yesterof sensational offerings is an opening day, and most Dundee had the better of eight of the ten rounds. The fourth was all in Bloom's favor; the seventh was tame ors were busy looking over Bloom's favor; the seventh was tame and even.

Bloom, who had six and one-half pounds advantage, as Dundee weighed only 127 pounds stripped, furnished a most agreeable surprise by his skill and eleverness. He was outboxed and outfought but seldom outgeneralled and never disgraced. Indeed the Brooklyn boy finished quite as strong as his flashier rival and in the last round drove nile those tempted to take and plenty of opportunity to add wo-vear-old daughter of Gen-

Dundee opened the first with a rush and closed the tenth with a rush. He crowded Bloom into a corner in the first round and for half a minute or more the lads ampionship at the national show into a corner in the first round and for half a minute or more the lads stood toe used as a saddle horse and for half a minute or more the lads stood toe to toe, slugging with both hands. It was Bloom who broke ground. In the second Dundee paid more attention to boxing at long range, and although he scored repeatedly with solid lefts he was forced to take some at ridiculously low figures. O. J. Gude's Honor Bright and Honor Boy, with a show record that took up a page of the catalogue, were sold separately, the former to Dr. J. S. Bristol of $135 and Honor Boy to M.
